Rule Title

2. Title of rule or section (catchline):
Section IX, Control Measures for Area and Point Sources, Part H, Emission Limits

Notice Type

3. Type of notice: Amendment

Rule Purpose

4. Purpose of the rule or reason for the change:
The Utah Air Quality Board has proposed for public comment amendments to Utah State Implementation Plan (SIP), Section IX, Part H. The revision of the SIP is to meet the commitment that the state made to address this portion of the SIP. Section R307-110-17 incorporates Section IX, Part H into this rule, and must be amended to change the Board adoption date to the anticipated adoption date of the amended plan.

Response Information

5. This change is a response to comments by the Administrative Rules Review Committee.
- No Yes

Rule Summary

6. Summary of the rule or change:
Section R307-110-17 is amended by changing the date of the last adoption by the Air Quality Board to December 4, 2019. The revision to Section IX, Part H will be open for public comment and found at <https://deq.utah.gov/air-quality/air-quality-rule-plan-changes-open-public-comment>.

Aggregate Cost Information

7. Aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
- A) State budget:
Affected: No Yes
This rule change is not expected to have any fiscal impact on the state budget because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the permit conditions.
- B) Local government:
Affected: No Yes
This rule is not expected to have any fiscal impact on local governments because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the permit conditions.
- C) Small businesses:
Affected: No Yes
("small business" means a business employing fewer than 50 persons)
This rule is not expected to have any fiscal impact on small businesses because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the permit conditions.
- D) Persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities:
Affected: No Yes
("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency)
This rule is not expected to have any fiscal impact on persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the permit conditions.

Compliance Cost Information

8. Compliance costs for affected persons:
This rule change will not have a compliance cost for affected persons because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the permit conditions.

Department Head Comments

9. A) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact the rule may have on businesses:
Upon completion of a thorough analysis, it is determined that this proposed rule change will not result in a fiscal impact to businesses because the requirements set forth in the SIP are already found in the New Source Review (NSR) and Operating Permit conditions. Due to the conditions already being in place in the permits, no further fiscal impact is anticipated.
- B) Name and title of department head commenting on the fiscal impacts:
Scott Baird, Interim Executive Director

Citation Information

10. This rule change is authorized or mandated by state law, and implements or interprets the following state and federal laws.
State code or constitution citations (required) (e.g., Section 63G-3-402; Subsection 63G-3-601(3); Article IV) :
