

Utah Radiation Control Board Policy Maintaining Waste Classification System Integrity

It is the policy of the Utah Radiation Control Board that the radioactive waste classification system be maintained, and that activities of licensees be consistent with maintaining radioactive waste classification categories. As changes in the classification are proposed, activities of licensees should remain consistent with promulgated classification rules.