- I.F.2. Compliance with the terms of this Permit does not constitute a defense to any order issued or any action brought under Sections 3007, 3008, 3013, or 7003 of RCRA (42 U.S.C. Sections 6927, 6928, 6934 and 6973), Section 106(a), 104, or 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9606(a), 9604, and 9607, commonly known as CERCLA) as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), or any other State or federal law providing for protection of human health or the environment from any imminent and substantial endangerment.

I.G. DUTY TO REAPPLY

- I.G.1. If the Permittee wishes to continue an activity regulated by this Permit after the expiration date of this Permit, the Permittee must apply for and obtain a new Permit in accordance with UAC R315- 270-30(b), subject to Condition I.H.1.

I.K. NEED TO HALT OR REDUCE ACTIVITY NOT A DEFENSE

Proper operation and maintenance include effective performance, adequate funding, adequate operator staffing and training, and adequate laboratory and process controls, including appropriate quality assurance procedures. This provision requires the operation of back-up or auxiliary equipment or similar systems only when necessary to achieve compliance with the conditions of this Permit.

I.N. DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

I.N.1. The Permittee shall furnish to the Director, within a reasonable time, any relevant information which the Director may request to determine whether cause exists for modifying, revoking and reissuing, or terminating this Permit, or to determine compliance with this Permit. All of the above referenced material shall be retained for a period of at least three years from the date of the sample, measurement, report, certification, or recording, unless a longer retention period for certain information is required by other conditions of this Permit. The three-year period may be extended by the Director at any time by written notification to the Permittee. The retention times are automatically extended during the course of any unresolved enforcement action regarding the HWSF to three years beyond the conclusion of the enforcement action.
- I.P.1.a. Recordkeeping may be accomplished using original documents or any other reasonable medium or similar recordkeeping technique. Any recordkeeping system shall be capable of reproducing complete, accurate, legible, and retrievable records.

- I.P.1.b. All records that are required to be maintained under this Permit may be converted to retrievable electronic media for storage. However, all records, regardless of storage medium, must be available for review when requested by regulatory personnel. Once converted, the electronic media may be retained in place of the hard copy originals of the records. These periods may be extended at the request of the Director at any time by written notification to the Permittee. To obtain a representative sample of the waste to be analyzed, the Permittee shall use the appropriate method from UAC R315-261-1090 Appendix I or the Waste Analysis Plan (Attachment 2), or an equivalent method approved in writing by the Director prior to use. Laboratory methods shall be those specified in Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste: Physical/Chemical Methods SW-846 (current edition, hereafter referred to as SW-846), or Standard Methods of Examination of Water and Wastewater (prevailing edition). The prevailing edition will be determined by the Director.
- I.P.4. When requesting substitute or additional analytical methods, the Permittee shall submit to the Director a request for a permit modification in accordance with the procedures of UAC R315-270-42. In the request, the Permittee shall provide information demonstrating that the proposed method(s) requested is equivalent or superior in terms of sensitivity, accuracy, and precision (e.g., reproducibility).
- I.P.5. This Permit contains and refers to documents and forms on which information and data is recorded. The Permittee may reformat documents and forms as necessary to carry out administrative duties. The Permittee may use alternative forms or add language to the forms and documents so long as the alternative forms or additions do not eliminate or change information that the Permit requires the Permittee to record. I.Q. REPORTING PLANNED CHANGES

I.Q.1. The Permittee shall give oral or written notice to the Director, in advance, of any planned changes to a permitted hazardous waste management unit or activity that the Permittee does not consider as requiring a permit modification. The Director will notify the Permittee orally or in writing that either it is agreed that no permit modification is required or the proposed changes require a permit modification. The Director may determine that the changes require a permit modification if the proposed changes modify the original design or operation that was represented in the application even though those portions of the application (i.e., design specifications, drawings, calculations, etc.) may not have been incorporated into the permit.

I.R. REPORTING ANTICIPATED NONCOMPLIANCE
