

Sample Messages taken from Communications for Social Media

1. Guest opinion: Utah Lake water quality decisions must be based on science. https://www.heraldextra.com/news/opinion/local-guest-opinions/guest-opinion-utah-lake-water-quality-decisions-must-be-based/article_9c900108-b215-554e-aa83-2befe54d05ac.html
2. The Utah Lake Commission is one of the co-chairs for the Utah Lake Water Quality Study. What is the Utah Lake Commission? Learn more: <http://utahlakecommission.org/about-us/>
3. The Utah Division of Water Quality is one of the co-chairs for the Utah Lake Water Quality Study. What is the Utah Division of Water Quality? Learn more: <https://deq.utah.gov/division-water-quality>
4. Tired of algae blooms on Utah Lake? The purpose of the Utah Lake Water Quality Study is to chart a path forward for evaluating impairments on Utah Lake, developing tools for making water-quality decisions, and incorporating past, current, and future stakeholder/partner work on the lake. utahlake.deq.utah.gov
5. Where do we draw the line between ULWQS communications that need approval, and ULC or DEQ sharing info that is similar (i.e. Provo city's loan from DEQ for water treatment plant, etc.)